General information

1. Validity of the initial accreditation is limited to two calendar years. Please note that non-compliance with the ESAAT membership contract and/or training regulations within this period leads to cancellation of the accreditation and loss of membership.
2. Also please note that your application and payment of the application process fee does not automatically lead to accreditation. The fee is non-returnable, even if accreditation is unsuccessful.
3. An application to prolong accreditation must be made after two calendar years have elapsed since initial accreditation, and four calendar years after re-accreditation. These re-accreditations require the provision of all the documentation of the initial process in order to ensure continued ESAAT membership. Documentation and payment of the fee must be received no later than 3 months before expiration of the second calendar year in order to ensure uninterrupted membership of ESAAT during the first re-accreditation. In the case of further re-accreditations, documentation and payment of the fee must take place at least 6 months before completion of the fourth calendar year.
